Over 99.99% of the voters processed to vote at the poll complied with law

Houston, TX – A Harris County Clerk's Office review of Early Voting and Election Day polling location records reflect only 35 of 164,334 voters who were processed to vote at the poll during the March Primary Elections failed to present an acceptable form of photo identification and had to vote a provisional ballot. Of the voters who did not present proper Photo ID, 10 voted in the Democratic Primary and 25 in the Republican Primary.

"Thus far, the dire consequences predicted after the photo identification requirement at the poll went into effect have not manifested in the third largest county in the nation," said Stan Stanart, Harris County Clerk and Chief Elections Officer of the County. "The number of voters who have failed to comply with the law have barely registered statistically."

Including the March Primary elections, three elections have been held since the photo identification requirement law went into effect. And, in all the elections, over 99.99% of the voters processed to vote at the poll were able to present one of the required forms of photo identification.

"The results do not surprise me. The elections department has worked very hard to inform the public about the photo identification requirement," added Stanart. The County Clerk's office launched a comprehensive effort to make voters aware of the photo identification requirement as soon as the law went into effect last year. The campaign included billboards and other more contemporary forms of outreach. In the 2013 November county elections, only 105 of 236,419 voters failed to comply with the law.

"I'm certain our educational efforts have had an impact on compliance. But, an inherent awareness among citizens that government issued photo identification is vital to the conduct of important daily personal transactions may be the underlying reason the electorate was prepared to vote in these elections and will be prepared to vote in future elections," concluded Stanart.

The complete list of acceptable forms of photo identification needed to vote in Texas can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

Over 99.9 of the voters who voted at the poll in the Nov. 5 2014 election complied with the photo identification requirement.

It may be too early to provide a definite answer as to the question of why so few people were not able to comply with the photo ID requirement. But then again, it may be that the resolve of Americans to be responsible while addressing life's most important issues is continually misrepresented

CHECKLIST FOR MARCH 4th, PRIMARY ELECTION DAY

Be Prepared – Know When, Where, Who, and How to Vote at Your Polling Location

Houston, TX – Harris County voters have from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Tuesday to cast their votes in the March 4th Primary Elections. “Twelve hours remain for voters to have a say in determining the candidates that will represent the Democratic and Republican Party in the 2014 November General Election.” said Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart.

In preparation for Election Day, Stanart, the Chief Election Official of the County, recommends voters remember the following things before going to the polls:

- Know if you are eligible to vote in the election – A voter must be registered to vote in order to participate in an election, including a Primary Election.
- Know where you are voting – Voting locations in a Primary Election are different than in a General Election. In a Primary Election, voters have to decide in what Primary election they will be participating to determine where to vote. Voters may visit www.HarrisVotes.com to find polling locations for the Democratic and Republican Parties' Primary Elections. Voters can vote in only one of the Primary Elections NOT both. On Election Day, voters must vote at the polling location where their precinct votes.

- Know who or what is on the ballot – Knowing who or what is on the ballot makes for a more prepared and confident voter. It is important to understand that in Primary Elections the candidates appearing on a voter's ballot will be affiliated with the same party. Voters may visit www.HarrisVotes.com to view a sample ballot or view what contests will appear on their respective ballot. Voters are allowed to bring their list of candidates into the poll booth.
- Know what voters can and cannot do at a polling location – Voters cannot bring electronic devices into the poll and cannot promote any candidate, party or proposition inside the poll or within the electioneering markers posted outside the polling location. Voters can ask officials at their voting precinct for assistance with the voting process; and, voters can bring someone of their choosing to assist them at the poll in accordance with the election code.
- Know what identification to bring to the poll – The state approved Photo IDs for voting includes:
 - Texas Driver's License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
 - Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
 - Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS
 - Texas Concealed Handgun License issued by DPS
 - United States Military Identification Card containing the person's photograph
 - United States Citizenship Certificate containing the person's photograph
 - United States Passport

With the exception of the U.S. citizenship certificate and some military identification, the IDs must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place. For more information about the Photo ID requirements voters may visit www.HarrisVotes.com.

"If you have not done so, I encourage you to go vote," concluded Stanart. "For the most complete election information in Harris County, voters should visit www.HarrisVotes.com or call 713-755-6965."

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

“Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations” Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this election, each party will have under 400 voting locations. “The political parties’ consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day results in many voters having to vote at a different location from general election locations. Consequently, it is much more convenient to vote early.”

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to assist EIC applicants:

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

"Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations" Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

“Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations” Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this election, each party will have under 400 voting locations. “The political parties’ consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day results in many voters having to vote at a different location from general election locations. Consequently, it is much more convenient to vote early.”

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to assist EIC applicants:

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

“Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations” Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this election, each party will have under 400 voting locations. “The political parties’ consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day results in many voters having to vote at a different location from general election locations. Consequently, it is much more convenient to vote early.”

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to assist EIC applicants:

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

“Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations” Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this election, each party will have under 400 voting locations. “The political parties’ consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day results in many voters having to vote at a different location from general election locations. Consequently, it is much more convenient to vote early.”

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person's photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person's photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to assist EIC applicants:

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

"Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations" Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this election, each party will have under 400 voting locations. "The political parties' consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day results in many voters having to vote at a different location from general election locations. Consequently, it is much more convenient to vote early."

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person's photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person's photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to assist EIC applicants:

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

“Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations” Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this election, each party will have under 400 voting locations. “The political parties’ consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day results in many voters having to vote at a different location from general election locations. Consequently, it is much more convenient to vote early.”

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to assist EIC applicants:

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

“Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations” Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this election, each party will have under 400 voting locations. “The political parties’ consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day results in many voters having to vote at a different location from general election locations. Consequently, it is much more convenient to vote early.”

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person's photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person's photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to assist EIC applicants:

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

"Almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election; therefore it is easier to vote at the Early Voting locations" Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties who determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this election, each party will have under 400 voting locations. "The political parties' consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day results in many voters having to vote at a different location from general election locations. Consequently, it is much more convenient to vote early."

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to assist EIC applicants:
